Robert Mak
KING 5 News

Robert Mak is host of “KING 5 News Up Front,” and a news reporter at KING 5 Television, Seattle’s NBC affiliate.

Robert has covered many of the major news events shaping public policy in Washington State and his news reports have been recognized by numerous organizations. His political coverage and “Ad Watch” series earned him the Walter Cronkite Award for Excellence in Broadcast TV Political Journalism, a national award presented by the University of Southern California Annenberg School. Robert also has won 12 regional Emmy awards for investigative reporting and news specials.

Originally from Madison, Wisconsin, Robert was a news reporter at WISC-TV3, Madison’s CBS affiliate before joining KING in 1992. He returned to KING this year after working as Communications Director for the City of Seattle. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and holds a Master’s degree from the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism in New York.

Graham Crow
Graham Crow Benefit Auctions

For the past 18 years, Graham Crow has been working with schools, charities and organizations all over the United States and Canada, raising more than 26.5 million dollars through benefit auctions. His philosophy of encouraging people to “spend more than you had planned, but to feel really good about doing so,” has made him one of the most sought-after auctioneers in the country.

When he’s not raising money for charities, Graham works in public relations as an Account Director for Waggener Edstrom Worldwide on the T-Mobile USA account. He has previously done PR for Nintendo and Xbox.
