Kin On
4416 South Brandon Street
Seattle, WA 98118

Dear Friends,

I am proud to congratulate you for 25 years of providing culturally sensitive, high quality care for Seattle's Asian Elderly, disabled individuals, and their families. This is a truly remarkable achievement. Your dedication and perseverance have delivered vital services to thousands among our state's Asian population.

Kin On has provided a necessary safety net in our community for over a generation. I strongly support the mission of Kin On and encourage other organizations to study and implement their best practices which have become a national model.

Congratulations again on 25 years of history, and may the next 25 years continue your success and significant value to Seattle and the health of our communities.

Sincerely yours,

Maria Cantwell
United States Senator
